Is it true that I can't help the way I am? Am I the result of my genetic make-up and the way I've been brought up, or do I have any choice in the matter?

This is a key event for anyone involved with young people; helping them on the journey of growing up.

Nick Pollard, former research psychologist - turned author, lecturer and social entrepreneur and now Director of The Damaris Trust, looks at this important issue and asks how our underlying worldview impacts our beliefs, attitudes and actions in sexual identity and practice. Where and how do we form our sense of sexual identity and just what implications does this have on the rest of our lives?

Workshops with Jason Gardner (Youth Project Researcher for LICC) and Rachel Gardner from the successful BBC series No Sex Please We're Teenagers.
