Sunday morning sermons are available on CD shortly after each service and are also available on the church website.

For details of our small groups which meet in people's homes during the week for Bible study & prayer, please contact the church office: all are welcome to attend these.

If communion is part of this service, all those who love Jesus and want to follow Him are invited to share this meal. If you do not wish to take part, please pass the bread & cup tray on. Please note that the bread is gluten free & the communion wine is non-alcoholic.

More information about our activities and other local events is displayed in the foyer. Help yourself to any leaflets or ask one of the welcome team if you would like any more information.

PRAYER DIARY

Church Weekend Follow up

Thank God for answering prayer concerning the weekend - it proved such a valuable time of learning, fellowship and fun, and what Lisa shared seemed so relevant to where we are as a church. Pray that we will all take to heart the key messages such as remembering God's past goodness but letting go of unhelpful baggage, seeing challenges as opportunities for God to deploy His resources and work through us in new ways, seeing the big picture of what God is doing and what we can each contribute - bringing hope to dead and barren places.

Mission

'The harvest is plentiful but the labourers are few' (Luke 10:2). It is easy to think that mission is for those who have received a special calling and that it is somebody else's job. Please pray that God will show you/each of us and what is your/our primary area of mission and that we will each be single-minded in making Christ known to the lost and effective at it.

Week of Prayer

Please play your part in praying over the next week for God to clarify our vision, show us what we should be focusing on next and how we can best work together to realise God's plans for extending His kingdom in Lymm and surrounding areas. He promises to draw near to us if we draw near to Him through prayer and dedicating ourselves to Him.
