

THE LIFE OF MOSES

MOSES:

- his coming had been foretold
- he was born into poverty as a Hebrew
- he was hunted as an infant

MOSES:

- he left his life of power & prosperity to humble himself and identify with the poor & the powerless
- he was chosen & anointed by God to lead the people, bringing them through blood and water, out of slavery and into freedom

MOSES:

- he was used by God to establish His covenant with those who believe
- his biography spans four books of the bible, which tell us little of his childhood, but who in his adult life would be used by God to change the world

'In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses proclaimed to the Israelites all that the LORD had commanded him concerning them.'

Deuteronomy 1:3

'It was the tenth day of the first month of the year when Israel crossed the Jordan River.'

Joshua 4:19 (CEV)

And Moses the servant of the LORD died there in Moab, as the LORD had said...The Israelites grieved for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days, until the time of weeping and mourning was over.

Deuteronomy 34:5, 8

So Joshua ordered the officers of the people: "Go through the camp and tell the people, 'Get your provisions ready. Three days from now you will cross the Jordan here to go in and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you for your own.'"

Joshua 1:10-11

deutero = second

nomos = law

“Do not add to what I command you and do not subtract from it, but keep the commands of the LORD your God that I give you.”

Deuteronomy 4:2

“Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God,
the LORD is one. Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.
These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts.
Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.”

Deuteronomy 6:4-7

“Take to heart all the words I have solemnly declared to you this day, so that you may command your children to obey carefully all the words of this law. They are not just idle words for you — they are your life. By them you will live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 32:46-47

¹Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people: “Keep all these commands that I give you today.²When you have crossed the Jordan into the land the LORD your God is giving you, set up some large stones and coat them with plaster.

³Write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over to enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, promised you.

⁴And when you have crossed the Jordan, set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I command you today, and coat them with plaster.

⁵Build there an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones. Do not use any iron tool on them. ⁶Build the altar of the LORD your God with fieldstones and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.

⁷Sacrifice fellowship offerings there, eating them and rejoicing in the presence of the LORD your God.
⁸And you shall write very clearly all the words of this law on these stones you have set up.”

Deuteronomy 27:1-8

Anyone who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with their own hands, that they may have something to share with those in need.

Ephesians 4:28

⁵Build there an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones. Do not use any iron tool on them. ⁶Build the altar of the LORD your God with fieldstones and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.
