

Special people!

Sir Cliff Richard OBE

British pop singer. Cliff has sold more than 250 million records worldwide. He has total sales of over 21 million singles in the UK and is the third-top-selling singles artist in UK Chart history, behind the Beatles and Elvis Presley.

The only singer to have had a No. 1 single in the UK in 5 consecutive decades: the 1950s through to the 1990s.

He became a Christian in 1964.

Dennis Viollet

Many great strikers have graced the Old Trafford stage, but none has matched his 32 league goals in the 1959/60 season.

He scored a remarkable 179 goals in 293 United appearances, making him the club's joint-fourth highest goal-scorer alongside George Best.

As part of the Busby Babes, he formed a formidable partnership with Tommy Taylor and United won back-to-back championships in 1956 and 1957.

The following year, having scored in the quarter-final clash with Red Star Belgrade, he escaped from the Munich air disaster with minor head injuries.

Colonel “Jim” Irwin

United States Astronaut James Irwin was a member of the Apollo 15 space rocket which landed on the moon in July 1971.

He was the eighth man to walk on the moon.

He served as Lunar Module pilot for the lunar rover vehicle and brought samples of the “Genesis Rock” back to earth.

He spent the last 20 years of his life sharing his Christian testimony and always ended by saying "Jesus walking on the earth is more important than man walking on the moon".

Pakistani schoolgirl Malala Yousafzai

As an eleven year old she wrote an anonymous blog for the BBC detailing her life under Taliban rule in north-west Pakistan, their attempts to take control of the valley where she lived, and her views on promoting education for girls.

As she boarded her school bus she was shot in the head by Taliban militants. Though in a critical condition her condition improved enough for her to be sent to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham.

At 17 she became the youngest person ever to win the Nobel Peace Prize.

For more than 17 years, a nun named Neyda Rojas has been been visiting one of the most dangerous prisons in the world in Venezuela, South America.

The prisoners have weapons and actually run the prison themselves with a strict set of rules.

Built for 750 prisoners it houses around 3,000 inmates.

"I am sure they will never shoot me. God is with me. They will never do anything against me. In fact, they protect me", she says.

She cannot stop seeing them as "God's children".

On December 2nd Facebook's Mark Zuckerberg and his wife Priscilla Chan say they will give away 99% of their shares in the company to good causes as they announce the birth of their daughter Max. "To make the world a better place for Max to grow up in & to promote equality for all children in the next generation".
It's estimated that promise will cost him £30bn!

EASTER DAY
1936

A large, glowing sun or moon in a hazy sky over a body of water. The sun is a bright yellow-orange oval shape, centered in the upper half of the image. The sky is a pale, hazy blue, and the water below is a darker, textured blue. The overall scene is serene and atmospheric.
