

Being the Church

Reaching the Lost

The most important thing is the people

The presence of God:
From temple to people
(1 Cor 3:16, 1 Cor 6:19)

Acts 2:42-47 They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. All the believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

A photograph of a church service. The sanctuary is filled with a large congregation of people of various ages, mostly seen from the back. They are seated in rows of chairs, facing a stage at the front. On the stage, a man in a light-colored shirt stands at a wooden podium, addressing the assembly. To his right, another person is partially visible. The church has a high ceiling with exposed wooden beams and large, arched Gothic-style windows. The lighting is warm and focused on the stage area. Overlaid on the image is white text listing church values and activities.

John 17:20-23 'My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one – I in them and you in me – so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.
