THE ANCIENT PATHS

Jeremiah 6:16

2 Corinthians 5:16-21

A photograph of a person standing at a crossroads in a rural landscape. The scene is split diagonally by a dark blue triangle. The top-left portion shows a dirt road curving to the left, with a bare tree on the left and a field on the right. The bottom-right portion shows a dirt road curving to the right, with a person standing in the middle of the road, a utility pole, and a field in the background. The overall tone is somber and contemplative.

Jeremiah 6:16

This is what the LORD says: “Stand at the crossroads and look;
ask for the ancient paths,
ask where the good way is, and
walk in it,
and you will find rest for your
souls.
But you said, ‘We will not walk
in it.’”

A photograph of a person walking on a dirt path in a rural landscape. The image is split diagonally from the top-left to the bottom-right. The upper-left portion is in a dark, muted color palette, while the lower-right portion is in a bright, golden-hour color palette. The person is walking away from the viewer on the path. A bare tree is on the left, and a utility pole is on the right. The background shows a field and a distant horizon.

Jeremiah 6:16

Ask where the good way is, and
walk in it,
and you will find rest for your
souls.

PERMANENT NEWNESS

2 Corinthians 5:16-25

PERMANENT NEWNESS

Ask where the good way is,
and walk in it,
and you will find rest for
your souls.

Jeremiah 6:16
