John the Baptist

- His Calling

Genesis 26:4

I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and will give them all these lands, and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

The Church is the Church only when it exists for others... not dominating, but helping and serving. It must tell people of every calling what it means to live for Christ, to exist for others.

- Fruit of Repentance

Ephesians 2:8

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God.
