Love
one another

From John chapter 13:

When he (Judas) was gone, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man is glorified and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will glorify the Son in himself, and will glorify him at once.

“My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come.

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

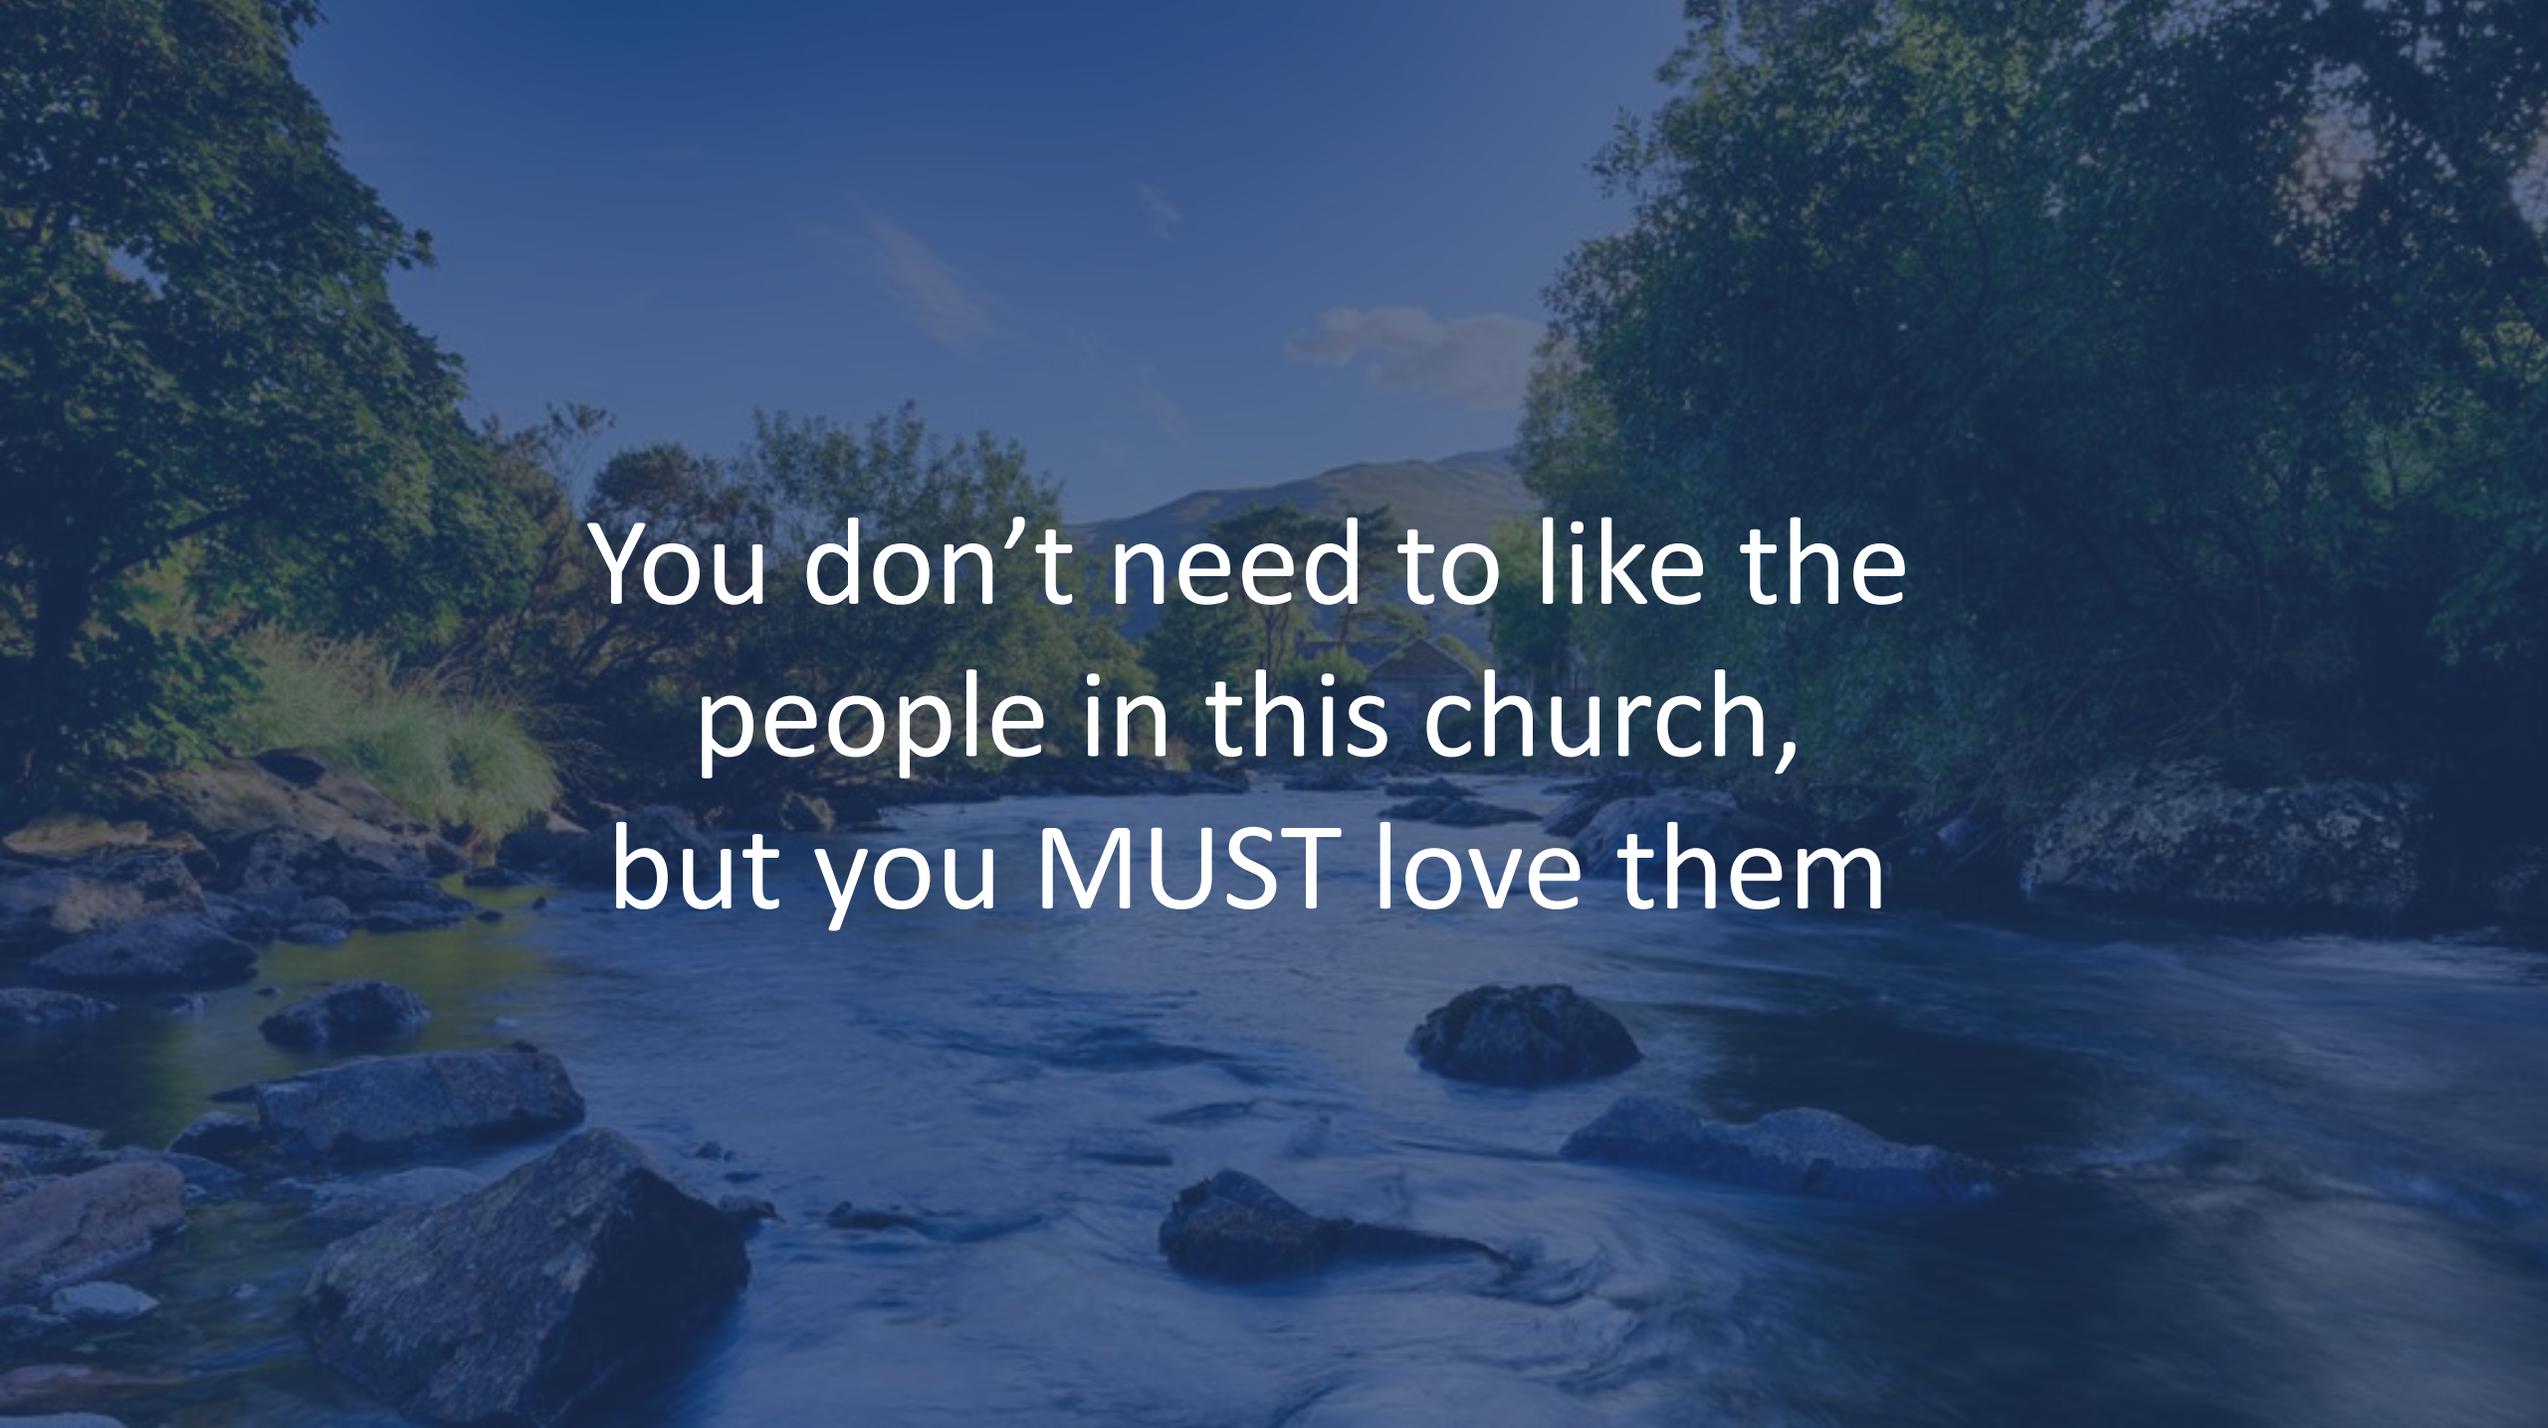

From John chapter 13:

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.” New International Version

“Let me give you a new command: Love one another. In the same way I loved you, you love one another. This is how everyone will recognize that you are my disciples—when they see the love you have for each other.”

The Message

“So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.” New Living Translation

You don't need to like the people in this church, but you MUST love them

“as I have loved you”
... How has Christ loved us?

*With love
that is vulnerable*

God chooses the weak things of this world to shame the strong

“As I have loved you”
... How has Christ loved us?

*With love
that is vulnerable*

*God chooses the weak things of
this world to shame the strong*

*With love
that is an action*

Love that remains, when feeling in love has fallen away

Soft hearts and thick skins

You don't need to like the people in this church,
but you MUST love them

And often God will change your heart, so you end up liking them anyway ...
