“Sympathetic pity and concern for the sufferings or misfortunes of others.”

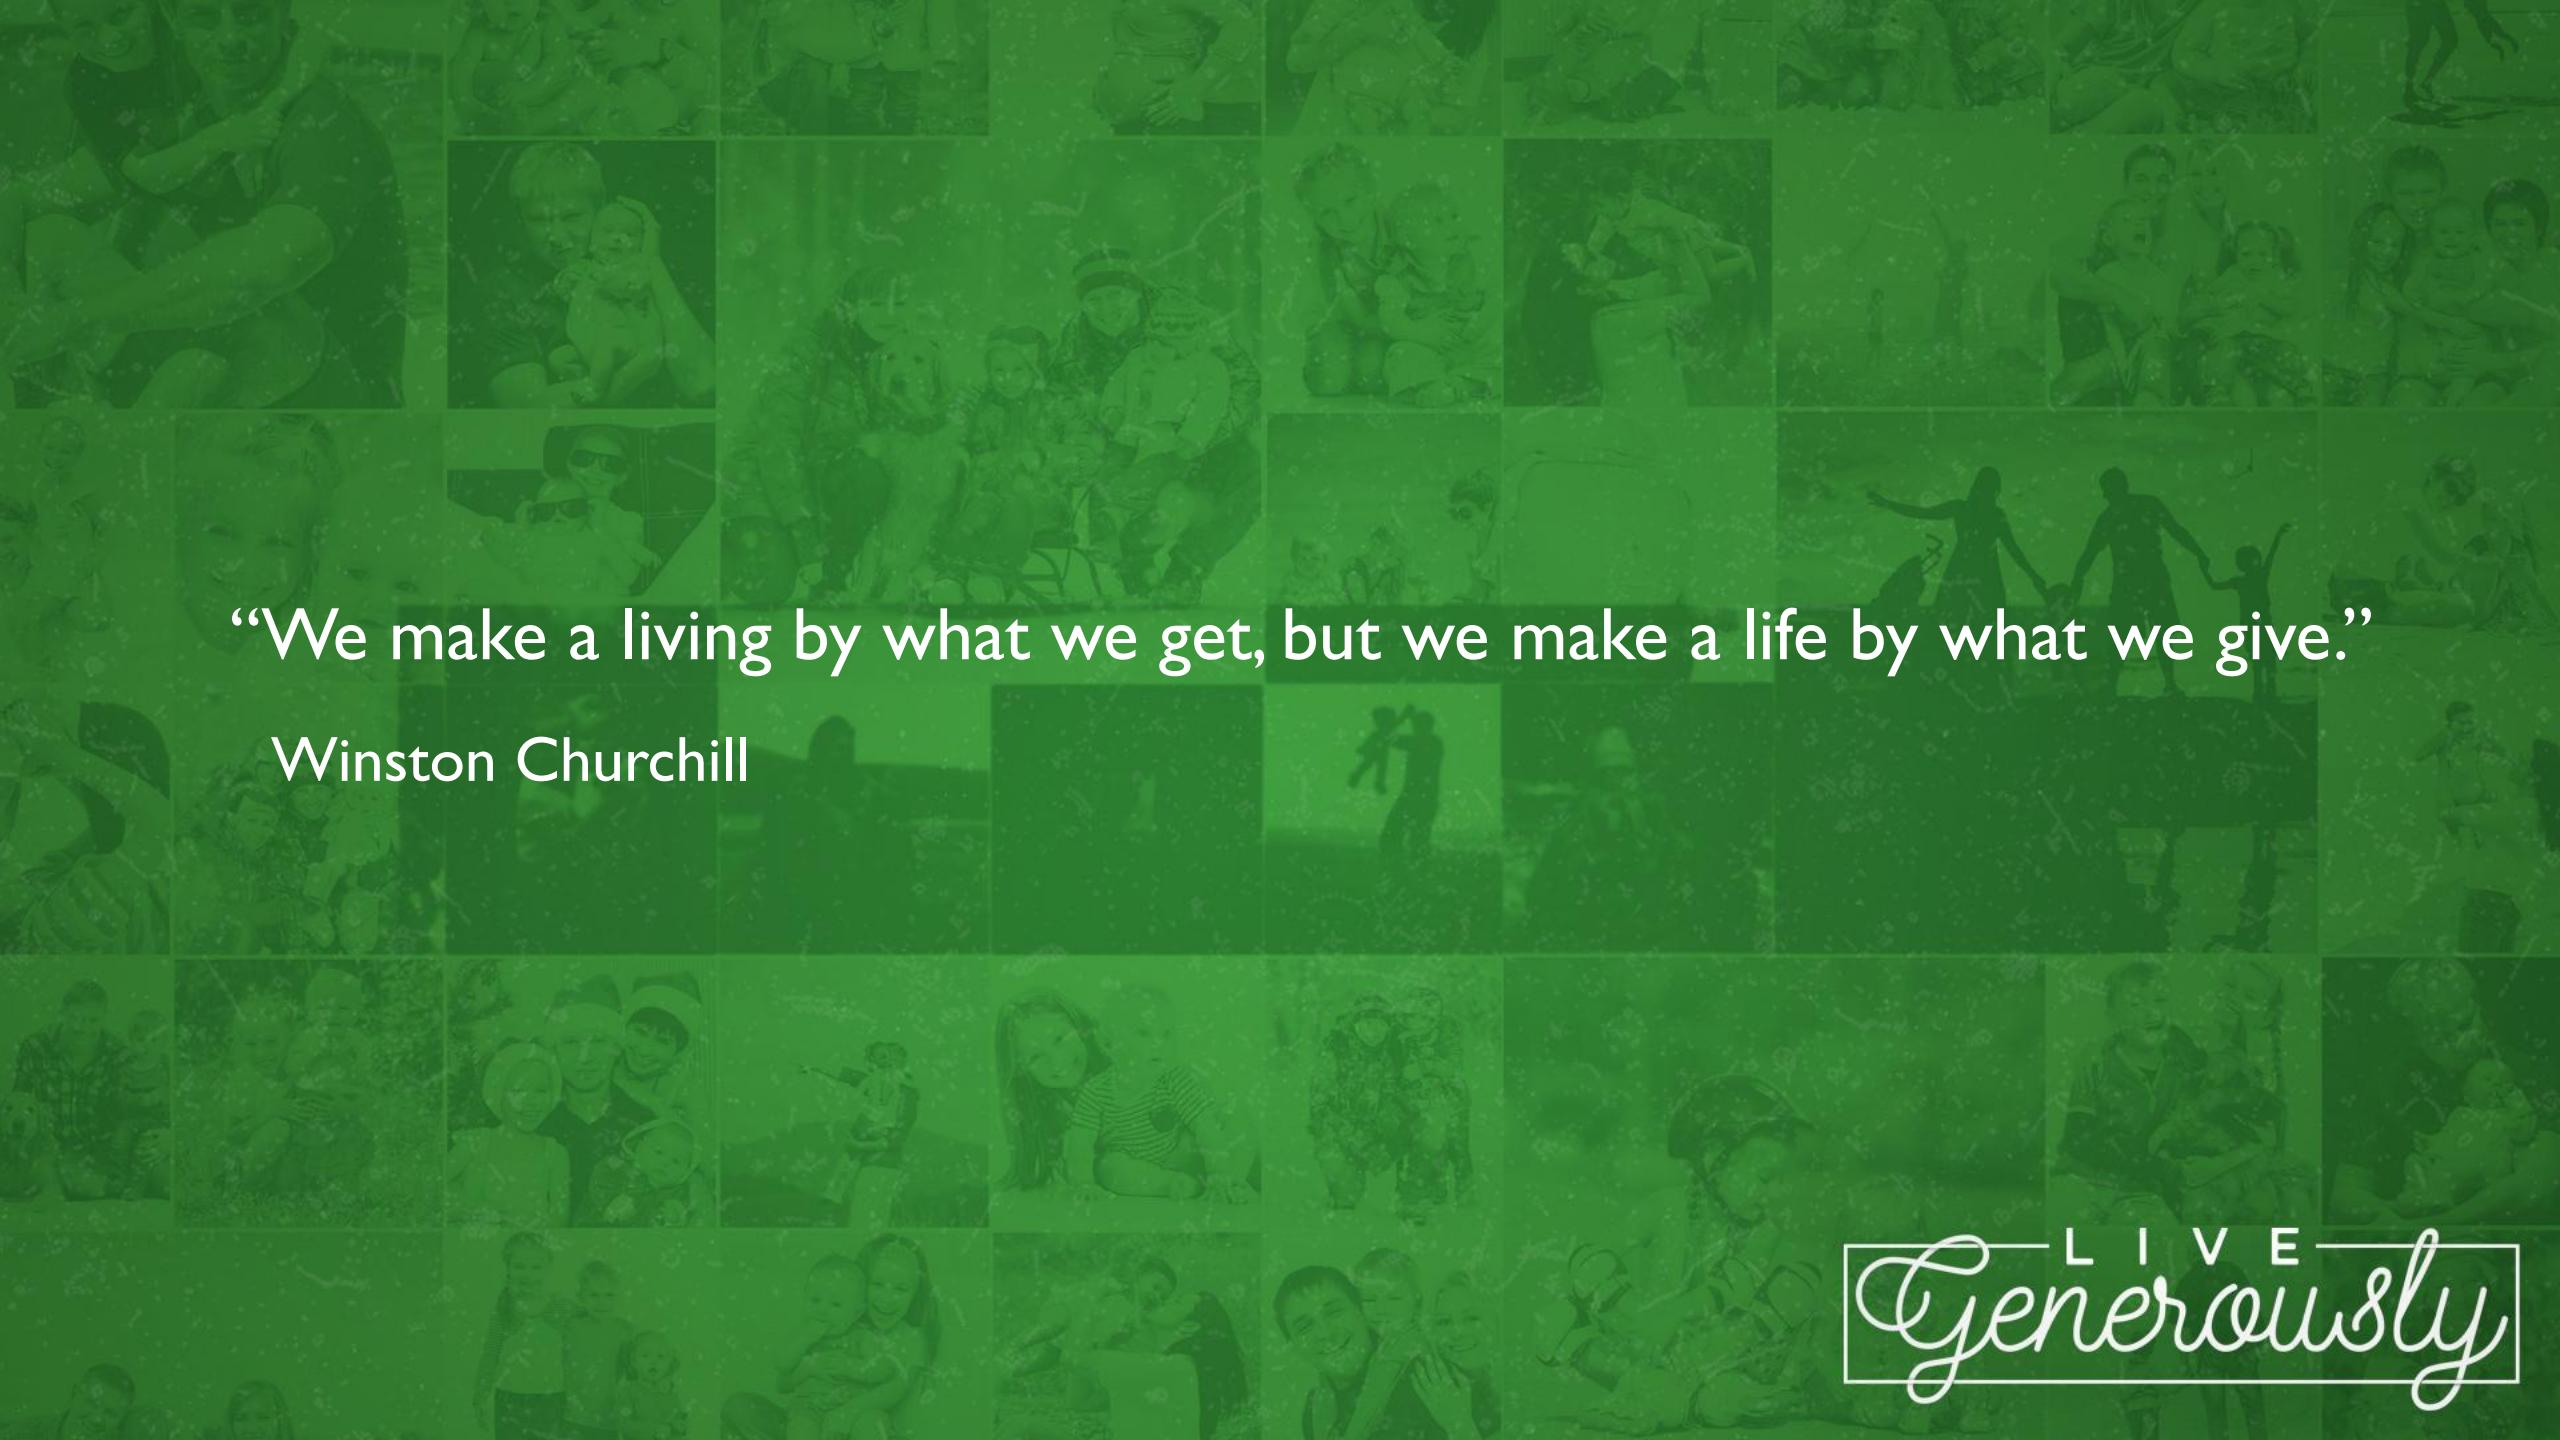

“The feeling or emotion, when a person is moved by the suffering or distress of another.”

“Compassion is a social emotion that motivates people to go out of their way to relieve the physical, mental or emotional pains of others.”

“Sympathy and empathy are feelings which can move you for a moment, but compassion puts hands and feet on that feeling so you have to do something about it.”

4 However, there need be no poor people among you, for in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess as your inheritance, he will richly bless you.

14 Supply them liberally from your flock, your threshing floor and your winepress. Give to them as the LORD your God has blessed you.

7 If anyone is poor among your fellow Israelites in any of the towns of the land you LORD is giving you, do not be hard-hearted or tightfisted toward them. 8 Rather be openhanded and freely lend them whatever they need. 9 Be careful not to harbour this wicked thought: “The seventh year, the year for cancelling debts, is near,” so that you do not show ill will toward the needy among your fellow Israelites and give them nothing. They may then appeal to the LORD against you, and you will be guilty of sin. 10 Give generously to them and do so without a grudging heart; then because of this the LORD your God will bless you in all your works and in everything you put your hand to. 11 There will always be poor people in the land. Therefore, I command you to be openhanded toward your fellow Israelites who are poor and needy in your land.

What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul?
