Colossians 3

17 And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

23 Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, 24 since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.

Genesis 1

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Genesis 2

1 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

2 By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work. 3 Then God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

Genesis 1

2 Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

‘There is no work better than another to please God; to pour water, to wash dishes, to be a cobbler, or an apostle, all is one; to wash dishes or to preach is all one as touching the deed, to please God.’

‘It is not by great things but by great diligence in little everyday things that you can show great love for God and become greatly holy.

Few ever do great things and the few who can do them, can each do only a few - but everyone can by the grace of God be faithful to what he knows. Your daily round of duty is your daily path to come nearer to God.’

Edward Pusey

‘The working world is desperate for practical solutions to life dilemmas, not just work dilemmas.’

‘Our fractured world and our work colleagues, with their fractured relationships and fractured dreams, need mending. Could it be that ‘for such a time as this’ God has placed you in your workplace? I believe that the world of work is ready to hear some good news. How about it?’

David Oliver
